

V/CV When 1 consonant is between 2 vowels, the 1st choice is to split after the first vowel.
The first syllable is open and generally says its name or has a schwa sound.

taken	broken	stupid	frozen tiger	basic	pretend	total relax	timer	omit	tidy silent	music	demand	human diver	zero	student	crocus

V/CV When 1 consonant is between 2 vowels, the 1st choice is to split after the first vowel.
The first syllable is open and generally says its name or has a schwa sound.

crocus	demand	human	zero omit	tidy	diver	basic music	student	taken	silent pretend	tiger	relax	stupid frozen	total	broken	timer

VC/V The 2nd choice for splitting a syllable when a consonant comes between 2 vowels is to split after the consonant.
The first syllable is closed, so the vowel is short.

finish	model	vanish	comet
edit	robin	lemon	panic
cabin	rapid	planet	dragon relish	hover	pedal	relish chapel	punish	wagon	polish

VC/V The 2nd choice for splitting a syllable when a consonant comes between 2 vowels is to split after the consonant.
The first syllable is closed, so the vowel is short.

robin	pedal	cabin	edit dragon	finish	relish	punish polish	chapel	rapid	vanish model	hover	panic	wagon lemon	planet	comet	relish